

Fairy Tale Trial – Hansel v. Witch

Plaintiff side cross examining the Witch

Non-objectionable questions:

- (to the witch) Did you lure the children into your home? (Answer with a yes or no)
- (to the witch) Did you attempt to kill then eat the children? (Answer with a yes or no)
- (to the witch) So, is that when you decided you were going to eat them? (Answer with a yes or no; Not leading the witness because it is an opposing party's witness)

Objectionable questions:

- (to the witch) Why do you live in the woods alone? (Relevance)
- (to the witch) You forced the children to eat candy. (Counsel is testifying)
- (to the witch) Why do you think the kids were by your house? (Calls for speculation)
